

Summer Moon

Summer began her dance training in Jazz, Modern, and Hip Hop, disciplines she continued throughout her college years while obtaining a degree in HR Management.. For over 20 years, Summer has served as a professional adjudicator for a diverse range of event producers across the United States. Her international judging experience is extensive, including events in the UK, Colombia, and Japan. Her dynamic performance background includes work as a principal dancer for numerous national industrials and commercials, as well as choreographing and dancing for up-and-coming artists. She continues to share her knowledge and passion by judging for competitions across the US and internationally, notably serving on the Hip Hop Panel at USASF Dance Worlds. Her award-winning choreography has been featured in studios, drill teams, and all-star programs nationally.
